Section 2: Earning TD Rewards Points

2.1 What are TD Rewards Points?

TD Rewards Points are reward points that you earn when you make qualifying Purchases with the Account linked with the Program. The number of TD Rewards Points you can earn will depend on the amount and the specific type of Purchase you make with the Account. TD Rewards Points have no monetary value unless TD Rewards Points are redeemed as a statement credit to the Account linked with the Program.

You can only earn TD Rewards Points on the net Purchases charged and posted to the Account. This means that credits for refunds, returned items and other similar credits for Purchases will reduce or cancel the TD Rewards Points earned.

You do not earn TD Rewards Points on the following:

- Cash Advances (including Balance Transfers, Cash like Transactions, and TD Visa Cheques);
- Interest charges;
- Fees;
- Adjustments;
- Refunds; and/or
- Rebates or other similar Account credits.

2.2 How do you earn TD Rewards Points and Redeem TD Travel Credit?

The Account linked with the Program must be open and in Good Standing to earn TD Rewards Points.

- If you cannot make a Purchase because the Account is not in Good Standing and we have restricted the Account's ability to make Transactions, you cannot earn TD Rewards Points.
- Please see your Cardholder Agreement to learn more about when the Account will not be considered in Good Standing and what can happen if the Account is not in Good Standing.

You will earn TD Rewards Points in only one of the Purchase Categories set out in the below chart when you make a qualifying Purchase and your Account is in Good Standing.

TD Rewards Points that you earn through a Purchase Category are in place of, and are not in addition to, the Base Earn Rate. The number of TD Rewards Points that you can earn will depend on the type of TD Credit Card you have.

We will round your qualifying Purchases posted to the Account up or down to the nearest whole dollar and then apply the TD Rewards Points earned for this Purchase.

If an Annual Cap is shown in the table below, the Earn Rates for the Purchase Category will no longer apply when your total Purchases in that category exceed the Annual Cap in a year. If your total Purchases in the category exceed the Annual Cap in a year, you will earn the Base Earn Rate on Purchases in the category for the remainder of the year. The year runs after your first statement period in January until the end of your statement period the following January.

TD Rewards Birthday Bonus

The TD Rewards Birthday Bonus applies only to the Primary Cardholder of a TD First Class Travel® Visa Infinite* Card.

Each year, you will receive a TD Rewards Birthday Bonus ("Birthday Bonus") on your TD First Class Travel® Visa Infinite Account, equal to 10% of the total number of TD Rewards Points earned over the 12 months preceding the Primary Cardholder's birthday, to a maximum Birthday Bonus of 10,000 TD Rewards Points. The TD Birthday Bonus is only calculated on points earned while using your current First Class Travel Account. This means that previously earned points on other Rewards Cards, Acquisition Bonus Points, or other Promotional Rewards Points earned do not count towards your Birthday Bonus. The account must be open & in good standing on the date points are awarded to qualify.

2.3 How do you receive your TD Travel Credit?

The TD Travel Credit applies only to TD First Class Travel Visa Infinite Accounts and Cardholders. You will receive one $100.00 TD Travel Credit on your first Eligible Travel Credit Purchase posted to the Account in a calendar year. In order to receive the TD Travel Credit, the Account must be open, active and in Good Standing.

An Eligible Travel Credit Purchase means:

- A Hotel, Motel, Lodging, or Vacation Rental Purchase of $500.00 CAD or more made with Expedia For TD.
- A Vacation Package Purchase of $500.00 CAD or more made with Expedia For TD, that includes a Hotel, Motel, Lodging, or Vacation Rental booking packaged with a transportation booking. A combination of multiple Hotel, Motel, or Lodging bookings will be considered Eligible if they are part of one Purchase of $500.00 CAD or more made with Expedia For TD. If additional Travel Related items available for Purchase on Expedia For TD are added to the transaction, only the previously defined Eligible Travel Purchases will qualify towards the $500.00 CAD booking minimum.

An Eligible Travel Credit Purchase does not include Travel Purchases made with a travel supplier that is not Expedia For TD will not qualify for the Travel Credit. This includes Travel Purchases made with Expedia Inc. These Travel Purchases are not considered Travel Purchases made through Expedia For TD.

One TD Travel Credit will be issued each calendar year:

- We will automatically post a $100.00 statement credit to the Account no later than 90 days after the first Eligible Travel Credit Purchase is charged and posted to the Account in a calendar year. This credit does not count towards your minimum payment. You will still need to pay the full minimum payment by the Payment Due Date.
- If the Primary Cardholder has already received a TD Travel Credit and then closes, or transfers out of, the TD First Class Travel Visa Infinite Account, and in the same calendar year opens, or transfers back to, a TD First Class Travel Visa Infinite Account, you cannot receive a second TD Travel Credit for that calendar year.
- We will not issue more than $100.00 in TD Travel Credits to any one Account in any calendar year. If the credit is not applied, it does not carry forward to the next calendar year. For example, if you do not make an Eligible Travel Credit Purchase in a calendar year, this does not result in a $200.00 TD Travel Credit (or two $100.00 Travel Credits) in the following year.

What if the Eligible Travel Credit Purchase is reversed?

If the original, qualifying Eligible Travel Credit Purchase is reversed on the Account for any reason, the following will occur:

If:	Then:
There is a subsequent Eligible Travel Purchase(s) posted on the Account in the same calendar year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will consider this subsequent, qualifying Eligible Travel Purchase as the Eligible Travel Credit Purchase. We will not reverse the statement credit provided all existing conditions have been met.
There is no subsequent qualifying Eligible Travel Credit Purchase posted and charged to the Account in the same calendar year.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We will reverse the statement credit, and You will be re-eligible to receive a new Expedia For TD Travel Credit for the Account for that calendar year. The reversed statement credit will appear on the Account statement as a charge to the Account in the amount of $100.00. This statement credit reversal can take place within 30 days after the original Eligible Travel Credit Purchase is reversed.

Our electronic time keeping methods will be definitive in determining the time and date of receipt by Us of any Eligible Travel Credit Purchase.

2.4 How do we determine if a Purchase qualifies for a Purchase Category?

We rely on Merchant Category Codes (MCC) that the Visa payment network uses for a merchant to classify its goods and services, which may be changed from time to time by Visa, to determine the Purchase Category for certain Purchases. If a Purchase qualifies for more than one Purchase Category, you will only earn TD Rewards Points in one of those Purchase Categories. We reserve the right to determine which Earn Rate your qualifying Purchase will earn. We do not monitor merchants to see if they correctly identify and bill Transactions according to an MCC, or correctly identify a Transaction as a PAP. However, we do reserve the right to determine if a Purchase qualifies for a certain Purchase Category.

Streaming, Digital Gaming & Media Purchases means a Purchase from a merchant classified by the Visa payment network as Digital Goods Media – Books, Movies, Music (MCC 5815), Digital Goods – Games (MCC 5816), Digital Goods – Applications (MCC 5817), Digital Goods – Large Digital Goods Merchants (MCC 5818), Cable, Satellite and Other Pay Television/Radio/Streaming Services (MCC 4899).

Grocery Purchases means a Purchase from a merchant classified by the Visa payment network as Grocery Stores and Supermarkets (MCC 5411).

Public Transit Purchases means a Purchase from a merchant classified by the Visa payment network as Local and Suburban Commuter Passenger Transportation, Including Ferries (MCC 4111).

Pre-Authorized Payments or PAP(s) means regularly recurring Purchases that you set up with a merchant to be automatically charged to your Account and that are classified by the Visa payment network as recurring payments. The payment will occur on a specified date and frequency (such as daily, monthly or annually).

Dining Purchases means a Purchase from a merchant classified by the Visa payment network as Eating Places and Restaurants (MCC 5812), Drinking Places (MCC 5813), or Fast Food Restaurants (MCC 5814).

Travel Purchases means all travel Purchases and related travel services that you charge to the Account.

Travel Purchases Not Through Expedia For TD

Travel Purchases made with a travel supplier that is not Expedia For TD will qualify for the Base Earn Rate. This includes Travel Purchases made with Expedia Inc. These Travel Purchases are not considered Travel Purchases made through Expedia For TD.

Please contact us using the contact details in Section 6 How to Contact Us, if you want to confirm whether a Purchase charged to the Account qualifies for a Purchase Category.

Section 3: Redeeming TD Rewards Points

3.1 How do you redeem TD Rewards Points?

To redeem TD Rewards Points, the Account connected with the Program must be open, active and in Good Standing. This means:

- For the purposes of this Program, if you miss making 2 minimum payments in a row, you cannot redeem your TD Rewards Points. You must bring the Account into Good Standing before you can redeem your TD Rewards Points. For example, you must make your minimum payment by the Payment Due Date. To learn how you can bring the Account to Good Standing, contact us using the information provided in Section 6 How to Contact Us.
- The Account must be active to redeem TD Rewards Points. If you do not earn or redeem any TD Rewards Points for a period of 1 year or more, the Account is considered inactive for the purpose of the Program. To learn more about what can happen to your TD Rewards Points if your Account is inactive for the purposes of the Program, please see Section 4.4 Can your TD Rewards Points expire, or can you forfeit them?
- Please see your Cardholder Agreement to learn more about when the Account will not be considered in Good Standing and what can happen if the Account is not in Good Standing.

The Primary Cardholder or any Additional Cardholder can redeem TD Rewards Points as follows:

- For Travel Purchases made with the Account through Expedia For TD; and/or
- For Other Redemption Options.

You cannot redeem TD Rewards Points earned for Purchases that have not yet been posted to the Account and not yet recorded to your TD Rewards Points balance.

We will rely on the first set of instructions we receive, either from the Primary Cardholder or an Additional Cardholder to redeem TD Rewards Points. Our electronic time keeping methods will be definitive in determining the time and date of receipt by us of any redemption instructions.

3.2 How do you redeem TD Rewards Points through Expedia For TD?

You can redeem your TD Rewards Points directly through Expedia For TD at the time you make your Travel Purchase. You may pay for your Travel Purchase by using all or some of your TD Rewards Points in your TD Rewards Points balance.

When you redeem your TD Rewards Points for a portion of a Travel Purchase cost made through Expedia For TD, and you charge the rest of the Travel Purchase cost to the TD Credit Card connected with the Program, you will only earn TD Rewards Points on the net amount of Travel Purchases charged to the Account.

You can either visit the exclusive ExpediaForTD.com website or call the exclusive Expedia For TD phone number to redeem your TD Rewards Points for your Travel Purchase through Expedia For TD. To do so, use the contact information listed in Section 6 How to Contact Us. When you make a Travel Purchase directly through Expedia For TD, every 200 TD Rewards Points are worth $1.

In addition to Travel Purchases through Expedia For TD, we may let you redeem TD Rewards Points in other manners that we may allow from time to time (including for Travel Purchases made through a travel agency, supplier or provider that is not Expedia For TD) (Other Redemption Options). If the dollar value of the TD Rewards Points redeemed exceeds the full amount of any Purchase, we will not statement credit the Account for more than the full amount of the Purchase.

If TD Rewards Points are redeemed for a credit to the Account, you will still need to pay the full minimum payment on the Payment Due Date, unless otherwise disclosed at the time of redemption.

When you redeem for Other Redemption Options, your TD Rewards Points can be redeemed for a minimum value of 400 TD Rewards Points per $1 (Minimum Value).

Other Redemption Options are limited-time promotional offers. When you redeem TD Rewards Points for Other Redemption Options, additional terms and conditions will apply and such terms and conditions will be available to you at the time you redeem for Other Redemption Options. We do not have to provide Other Redemption Options and can cancel or change them at any time, as we determine.

To redeem for Other Redemption Options or to learn more about Other Redemption Options, use the contact information listed in Section 6 How to Contact Us.

TD Rewards Points will not expire and be forfeited so long as the Account connected to the Program remains open, active and in Good Standing, and the Agreement has not ended.

Below is a chart that explains how and when your TD Rewards Points will expire and be forfeited. In all cases below, we can delay the expiry of TD Rewards Points and that delay does not prevent us from exercising our rights under these TD Rewards Program Terms and Conditions.

TD Rewards Points will expire and be forfeited in the following events:

This section applies when we receive notice that the Primary Cardholder has died, and the Primary Cardholder's Account connected with the Program has a TD Rewards Points balance.

Beneficiary means a natural person designated by an executor, trustee, or the liquidator of the Primary Cardholder's estate as the beneficiary to receive the TD Rewards Points earned for the Account connected with the Program.

Only the executor or a representative authorized by the Primary Cardholder's estate can provide direction as to how and in what manner TD Rewards Points can be provided to a Beneficiary.

If we are notified within 1 year from the date of death of a Primary Cardholder, the executor or a representative authorized by the executor can instruct us to do the following:

- Redeem the TD Rewards Points for a statement credit to the Account within 90 days of notification, or;

The policies of travel providers may vary from time to time and may differ among travel suppliers.

Taxes and Fees for Travel Purchases

Travel Providers may charge you taxes, fees, charges, surcharges and levies for your Travel Purchase. Some of these taxes, fees, charges, surcharges and levies may be charged after you make your original Travel Purchase.

If additional taxes, fees, charges, surcharges and levies incur after you make a Travel Purchase, you are responsible for paying them directly to travel providers. The amount of taxes, fees, charges, surcharges and levies that you must pay is established by travel providers and may change at any time without notice, even after the date that you confirm your Travel Purchase arrangements.
